MS EMILY BRONTË · RHINE CRUISE TO SWITZERLAND · DEPARTING 24 OCTOBER 2026

An important update on your holiday, and where you will sail instead

Your holiday departs on 24 October as booked, on the same ship, with your guided tour of Koblenz and your morning in Rüdesheim still part of the holiday. Unfortunately the Rhine cannot be sailed this month, due to low water further upstream and through the Rhine gorge so the main change is that the Rhine route is not running, so your week will be spent on the Moselle instead, joining and leaving your ship at Güls rather than Cologne.

THE RIVER, AND WHY WE HAVE CHANGED YOUR ITINERARY

Instead of flying to Basel you fly into Cologne or Düsseldorf and travel by coach to Güls, a wine village on the Moselle just above Koblenz, where the Emily Brontë is waiting. From there the week belongs to the Moselle: Cochem beneath its hilltop Reichsburg, Bernkastel with its leaning half-timbered houses around the market square, and a full day in Luxembourg, a country the itinerary you booked never reached, with its UNESCO listed old town along the cliffs and the casemates cut into the rock below. You moor that night at Traben-Trarbach, once among the greatest wine trading towns in Europe. Rüdesheim is included too, on your last full day, reached by coach rather than by sailing the Gorge.

The Rhine has dropped too far this month for a ship of this size to work it reliably, and we would not bring you down from Switzerland, which is why your holiday now stays on the Moselle. Our river cruise partner's nautical team and our own in house team read the gauges daily, judging what they mean for your ship rather than the river in general; levels can move either way, and we will tell you promptly if anything alters.

YOUR SHIP, AND WHERE YOU JOIN HER

You are on the MS Emily Brontë for the whole holiday, we will aim to book the same cabin standard as booked, if this is not possible, we will call you with options available. What changes is where you meet her: you board at Güls, on the Moselle just above Koblenz, rather than at Basel, and you leave her there on day eight. We coach you between the airport and the ship, around an hour and forty five minutes from Cologne or two and a half hours from Düsseldorf.

Coaching times are shown for every day. The airport transfers on days one and eight are the new ones, and Rüdesheim on day seven is a coach excursion rather than a sailing.
