MS RIVIERA RESPLENDENCE · RHINE CRUISE TO SWITZERLAND FOR SOLO TRAVELLERS · DEPARTING 31 OCTOBER 2026

An important update on your holiday, and what we can offer instead

Your holiday departs on 31 October as booked, still runs for eight days, your outbound flight is changed, you now embark in Dusseldorf, not Basel, we will rebook your flights. You keep the MS Riviera Resplendence and the cabin you booked. The Rhine is too low for us to bring you up to Switzerland, so the cruise you booked is not running. What we can offer in its place is a cruise through the Netherlands and Belgium. It is a different holiday, and whether you want it is entirely your decision. We have sailed this trip with many guests this summer with positive feedback.

THE RIVER, AND WHY WE HAVE CHANGED YOUR ITINERARY

You board at Düsseldorf, a little downriver from Cologne and we will rebook your outbound flights. Day 2 starts with a guided tour of Cologne with free time in Dusseldorf in the afternoon. On day 3 we spend the morning sailing the Dutch waterways to Amsterdam, where a glass topped boat takes you through the canal ring, and the evening brings traditional Dutch music in the lounge. Then comes Kinderdijk, where nineteen windmills have stood along the dykes since the 1730s, and after that Belgium: a morning in Ghent among its canals and cobbled towpaths, or a full day in Bruges with the Belfry, the Markt and the Basilica of the Holy Blood. Antwerp follows, with the gabled guild houses of the Grote Markt and the Brabo fountain, then Nijmegen, the oldest city in the Netherlands, before sailing onwards to Dusseldorf.

The Rhine above Cologne has dropped too far this month for a ship of this size to work it reliably, and we would not get you through to Switzerland, which is why the holiday now turns north and west instead. Our river cruise partner's nautical team and our own in house team read the gauges daily, judging what they mean for your ship rather than the river in general; levels can move either way, and we will tell you promptly if anything alters.

YOUR SHIP, AND WHERE YOU JOIN HER

Nothing about your ship changes. You are on the MS Riviera Resplendence for the whole holiday, in the cabin grade you booked. The one difference is where you meet her: you board at Düsseldorf rather than Basel, around twenty minutes from Düsseldorf airport or an hour and ten minutes from Cologne, and you leave her at Düsseldorf on day eight.
